TESTIMONIALS

“As an independent not-for-profit hospice agency, Hospice of Southern Illinois depends on our community relationships to get our mission and our messaging out. We have been long-time members of the O’Fallon-Shiloh Chamber of Commerce; its offerings of committee meetings and networking events help us meet and interact with other professionals and community members we would not have the opportunity to meet with. Everything associated with this chamber is first class from the staff to the organization of every event making sure you have an opportunity to share “the happenings,” of your business. They do all this while respecting your time.”

Lisa Phillipson
Community Relations Director
Hospice of Southern Illinois

“There is no better place to grow as a business and as an entrepreneur than the O’Fallon-Chamber of Commerce. At both HD Painting and Stain and HD Renovations, we value the community and support that the Chamber provides. Through being a member, I have connected with kind people who have supported the growth of my businesses and other’s, discovered new opportunities for myself and my businesses, and continually felt inspired to expand.”
