In 300 words or less, please tell us other information you'd like the public to know about you. This is not required, but you may want to address: 1. The most significant challenges facing the office you're seeking and what you'd do to overcome them. 2. What single change you'd make in your area of responsibility. 3. Why you feel you're more qualified than your opponent(s)

David Cobb is a GIS Specialist supporting Capital Project Development in Public Transit for Agency for Community Transit, Inc. With more than 15 years of experience in the GIS field, David specializes in working collaboratively with internal and external partners to enhance information and data driven decisions. By leading efforts in data collection, aerial photography, map production, land acquisition, and asset management, David has played a key role in the execution of construction projects from conception through completion.

Prior to working in Public Transit, David served as a GIS Technician at Scott Air Force Base in St. Clair County, and America's Central Port in Granite City, Illinois. In addition to his professional roles, David is passionate about serving his community by dedicating time as a board member of Heartlands Conservancy, volunteering as a coach for youth sports, and raising funds to cure Cystic Fibrosis. As a testament to his positive impact on the local communities and industries he serves, David received the "40 Under 40 Award" from the St. Louis Business Journal in 2018.

David is passionate about staying active as well as spending time with his wife and two daughters, so you can frequently find David and his family outdoors riding bikes, walking, playing soccer and golf in their neighborhood or community greenspaces.
